

This is my summary.

The camping trip

Mum and her children are going on a camping trip but the daughter is not looking forward to it. When they put the tent up, the wind blows part of it away.

I cut out lots of details so I didn't include any names or what they said. I did not mention that they were travelling to the campsite in the car.