St John Fisher Catholic Voluntary Academy

Behaviour Policy

St John Fisher Catholic Voluntary Academy seeks to represent the Gospel teachings of Jesus Christ and the teaching of the Catholic Church as we strive to develop the talents of every member of our community.

1. Our Aim

For the children of St John Fisher to believe and achieve in a safe, respectful and supportive Christian environment.

2. Our Objectives

- To make the Catholic faith the foundation of our school culture.
- To ensure that our children respect themselves and others as children of God who are unique and special.
- To help pupils recognise and respect the different cultures represented in the school and the wider community and promote harmony within our society regardless of differences.
- To provide a variety of resources to explain and develop ideas of responsibility and personal accountability.
- To implement a disciplinary framework that is clear and understood by all members of the SJF community.

3. Core principles

Within our school and wider community, all pupils and adults are encouraged to demonstrate courtesy, manners and respect for everyone. This framework of positive behaviour is based on the following principles:

Respect for God

Respect for others

Respect for other people's property and belongings

Respect for oneself

3.1. CMAT Behaviour principles

Each of the 23 schools within the CMAT has its own Behaviour Policy which is necessary to respond to the context of that school. That said, as a family of schools, we build our Behaviour Policies on the following 12 principles:

Clarity and simplicity:

1. Our policies will be clear, explicit, easy to understand and remember.
2. Our policies will have clear expectations, rewards and consequences.

Restoration:

3. Our policies will focus on justice and improvement, not retribution.
4. Our policies will reflect the teachings of Jesus: forgiveness, dignity, respect and loving kindness.
5. Our policies will be adaptive and acknowledge that one size does not fit all.
6. Our policies will be based on the highest expectations.

Relationships:

7. Our policies will be built on respectful relationships, encouraging positive mental health.
8. Our policies will show that everyone has a role to play in good behaviour: pupils, parents and staff.
9. Our policies will respect the unique dignity of all and will celebrate success.

Communication:

10. Our policies will recognise that all behaviour is a form of communication.
11. Our policies will include a clear behaviour curriculum to teach our pupils how to behave well.

12. Our policies will focus on staff as positive role models, the support of parents, and the personal responsibility of our young people

4. Standards

Safety – The safety of our children is paramount, and all members of the community have a responsibility to keep each other safe.

Learning – Our children will work in a respectful and attentive manner to ensure that they and their fellow students do their best.

Play – Our children will play with fairness at playtime and during P.E.

Travel – Our children will always represent the school values on journeys to and from school or on school trips.

Disagreement – Our children will be expected to learn strategies to cope with conflict and disagreement without resorting to anger or violence.

Prayer – Our children will always show reverence at times of worship and prayer at school or in church.

Property – Our children will respect property owned by themselves, others or the school.

Responsibility – Our children will take responsibility for their actions and accept the consequences if their behaviour does not meet the required standard.

Teamwork - Our children will learn to play and work with others.

Home - School Co-operation – The school, parents and carers will work together as a team to develop our children.

Uniform – Our children will be proud to wear their SJF uniform and ensure that they always represent the best of themselves, their family and SJF.

5. Rules

We will endeavour to provide and maintain a friendly, encouraging, secure, supportive and positive school environment in which we can all learn.

We will endeavour to provide a pleasant and safe environment for all members of the school community.

We will establish a set of school rules that are consistently applied across the school.

At no time will anyone intentionally do anything that causes harm, inconvenience or unnecessary work for other members of the school community.

6. Whole School Rules

At St John Fisher we expect all children to follow our Golden Rules.

Golden Rules:

We walk
We use our indoor voices
We listen to each other
We have kind hands
We have kind feet
We share, we take turns and we tidy up
We look after each other
We follow instructions given by the adults the first time of asking
We always try our best and be the best we can be

Whole school rules are intended to reinforce our school motto

Aim high, Work hard, Be kind

And our school mission statement:

'Follow me, I will make you fishers of men'

At Saint John Fisher we grow as one grateful family, in knowledge, friendship, faith and love.

Our virtues;

Love, love of learning, gratitude and holiness

7a. Playground Rules

- We play fairly
- We are kind and helpful
- We take care of our things
- We listen to adults
- We line up quickly and quietly
- We have fun
- Golden Rule: Treat others the way you want to be treated

Midday supervisors will give verbal warnings, yellow cards and time out when appropriate. More serious behaviour will be referred to the teaching staff.

7b. Dinner time rules

If any of the golden rules are broken at dinner time a child may be asked to spend time in the time-out zone or walk with a Midday supervisor (MDS) for a period of time. The same rules for yellow and red cards apply at dinner times and break times. If a child continuously breaks rules at break and dinner time, it may result in them being kept inside for a period of time. It may also result in them being prohibited from certain activities that have led to their unwanted behaviour such as football or playing tig. If there is a lunchtime incident, a MDS will notify the relevant class teacher.

7. Uniform

The wearing of correct uniform is considered to be an important element in establishing a sense of community and expectations in school.

Children are encouraged to take pride in wearing appropriate uniform, including P.E. kit.

Hair should be sensible. We don't permit extreme, e.g. closely shaven styles/ patterns or coloured hair. All shoulder length hair should be tied back. Any hair accessories should be small, simple and in school colours.

With the exception of watches and studs, jewellery is not allowed to be worn in school. If the child's ears are pierced, plain gold or silver studs may be worn. During P.E. earrings need to be removed or covered with tape.

Summer uniform can be worn from Easter until October half term.

8. Roles and responsibilities

It remains the overall responsibility of the Head Teacher, and the leadership team to ensure that high standards of discipline are maintained on a daily basis. However, at St John Fisher, we acknowledge the responsibility of every person, adult and child, in promoting and maintaining high standards of behaviour at all times.

Pupils in Year 6 are allocated duties and responsibilities, including aiding staff in the supervision of younger pupils. The roles of School Council and House Captains are considered to be reflective of the positive attitudes and standards to which all pupils should aspire.

The school collaborates actively with parents and carers so that children receive consistent messages about how to behave at home and at school. Parents are expected to support their child in adhering to the school rules, inform the school of any changes in circumstances that may affect their child's behaviour and discuss any behavioural concerns with the class teacher promptly.

9. Behaviour Management

Classroom Management

We aim to provide a broad and balanced curriculum through quality teaching and learning experiences. The planning and delivery of high-quality learning experiences, matched to individual needs and abilities, minimise the opportunity for disruptive behaviour. Staff are entrusted to manage inappropriate behaviour promptly and efficiently in accordance with school policy. Rewards and sanctions are used to encourage good behaviour by our students.

The class teacher is entrusted to ensure good behaviour in the classroom with the support of our Teaching Assistants. They will:

- Make sure that they are always present to supervise children in the classroom
- Prepare equipment and materials before each lesson
- Make sure pupils have access to necessary materials and resources during a lesson
- Construct classroom rules with the children that reflect our whole school rules
- Display classroom rules clearly in the classroom
- Actively teach the class rules to the children
- Use praise to encourage pupils
- Refer to the class rules in praise and sanctions
- Be consistent in response to infringement of classroom rules
- Use appropriate tone, language and volume to model good behaviour to pupils

Safety on the Move

- Children will move quietly and carefully between classrooms
- Children will walk on the left of the corridor
- Young leaders will monitor children walking back into school after playtimes and lunchtimes
- Children will respect other pedestrians and road users
- Children will respect the dangers of the road and obey the instructions of responsible adults near to roads
- On school trips, children will obey all instructions of responsible adults

10. Rewarding Good Behaviour and Achievements

Rewarding positive behaviour is the first step that must be taken to modify behaviour both in class and in and around the school. St John Fisher will seek to encourage and reward positive behaviour, good work or demonstration of positive personal values by:

- Positive feedback to individuals or groups
- Visual prompts to highlight individual's good behaviour, i.e. stickers, posters
- Letters or phone calls home to parents
- Awarding House Points (KS2) and Dojo Points (R&KS1) for school attributes e.g. excellent 'SHINE' behaviour
- Teacher awards for children working or behaving exceptionally well

- Nominations for termly SJF cups such as 'The Kindness Cup' or 'The Progress Cup'
- A celebration assembly is held regularly in celebration of pupils' success in and beyond the school day
- Golden Time may be offered on the last Friday of every month for all children who have earned it.
- There will be certificates for children who achieve 100/200/300 positive points.

Encouraging good behaviour

A thirty minute session known as 'Golden Time' is timetabled in for children with excellent behaviour. 'Golden Time' is a positive behaviour management tool where all children can earn 'Golden Time' through good behaviour. All children will be rewarded Golden Time if they have positive points and are in line for their house points accumulated.

Children with negative points from that month must sit in an appropriate area in silence and be given time to reflect on how to gain maximum points the following week. If a child has continuous warnings, yellow cards or red cards in the weeks leading up to Golden Time, then they will have time out in the Reflection room as will those children in KS2 who have not completed their homework for the week leading up to Golden Time.

Golden Time for Key Stage 1 and in Key Stage 2, will normally take place on the last Friday of each month.

During Golden Time, children may perform any activity they wish following consultation with the class teacher. Class teachers are asked to be flexible in rewards and activities available during Golden Time.

See Appendix 9 for more details.

Adults in school should at all times:

- Praise good behaviour. Praise is a vital element in encouraging good behaviour and attitudes
- Look for examples of good behaviour to draw other children's attention to. Reward it with House Points, Golden Time Points, or a certificate in Merit Assemblies
- Remember that children want and need attention. If they do not receive it for being good, some will seek it by making the wrong choices

The way to good order

- Lead by example
- Explain expectations clearly
- Respect every person and expect to receive respect
- Set high, realistic standards
- Apply rules firmly and fairly
- Praise good behaviour
- Treat everyone as an individual
- Share in a corporate responsibility
- Never be afraid to apologise

Maintaining discipline

- Insist on acceptable standards of behaviour
- Apply school rules uniformly
- Work to agreed procedures
- Insist that children conform to agreed codes of behaviour
- Follow up problems to their conclusion
- Establish your authority firmly and calmly
- Focus on the behaviour not the child i.e. separate the problem from the person

- Do not bear grudges or pre-judge children

Do all you can to:

- Know the children as individuals and show you care
- Be positive and build relationships
- Be consistent
- Keep calm
- Listen
- Use humour

Manage situations by:

- Dealing with the incident
- Carry out any action you have threatened
- Listening to all sides of the story
- Establishing the facts
- Making a decision
- Ensuring that the child's class teacher is informed

Most importantly:

- Be aware of potential problems
- Prevent children misbehaving before they start

Do all you can to avoid:

- Humiliating anyone
- Shouting
- Over-reacting
- Using sarcasm
- Blanket punishments
- Punishing what cannot be proved

If problems arise:

- Try to reconcile the problem – consider doing this privately
- Cooling down - time for reflection
- Discussing how the problem might be avoided in the future

11. Sanctions

Teacher use of sanctions:

- Feedback to be given immediately after the poor behaviour
- Feedback to criticise the behaviour and not the child
- Feedback should be delivered in a calm and professional manner
- Feedback should include WHY the behaviour was unacceptable and WHAT improvements the child can make to their behaviour, or what exactly the teacher or TA requires from the child
- The intention of the sanctions is to encourage a return to consistently good behaviour
- Sanctions should be proportionate to the behaviour

The following sanctions will be applied if a child exhibits low inappropriate behaviour:

Behaviour thermometer
Good to be Green	At St John Fisher we expect all children to follow our Golden Rules Golden Rules: We walk We use our indoor voices We listen to each other We have kind hands We have kind feet We share, we take turns and we tidy up We look after each other We follow instructions given by the adults the first time of asking We always try our best and be the best we can be Children to show: Quality sitting in classrooms, in assemblies and at lunch times Quality listening when an adult or child is talking Their best effort when completing a task or activity Respect towards all adults and children Respectful walking around the school - calmly and quietly Follow instructions quickly and without fuss Good manners at all times

STAGE 4 Red Card	Repeated yellow card offence. RED: A child is moved to red if they have continued to display unacceptable behaviour despite being given opportunities to improve their behaviour through the previous coloured stages. The parent(s)/carer(s) of the child will be informed by the class teacher via a phone call/face to face and a red slip sent home in the child's bag (see appendix 2) A child who is moved to red will stay on the red section for the remainder of the day. They will also have to give up 15 minutes of their morning play or of their lunch time depending on the time of the incident – here they will complete a reflection sheet (see appendix 5) and issue an apology to the person that requires it with a restorative justice approach (see appendix 3) Child could be moved to a parallel class All red slips are recorded and monitored
STAGE 5 Automatic Red Card	A child can also be automatically moved to red if they display any of the following: leaving the room without permission verbally abusive towards others, including using racist ¹ and/or homophobic language sexual harassment, Sexual comments, remarks, jokes and online sexual

STAGE 8	A final review meeting will be held with parents to explain this phase. The pupil will be removed from lessons (internal exclusion) and taught by a TA. 12. Pupil support

The school recognises its legal duty under the Equality Act 2010, consequently our approach to challenging behaviour may be differentiated to cater to the needs of the child.

The school's SEND lead and Learning Mentor will evaluate a child who exhibits challenging behaviour to determine whether they have underlying needs that are not currently being met. The child may be added to the school's SEND record and issued with personal targets in form of a one-page profile.

Where necessary, support and advice will also be sought from specialist teachers, an educational psychologist, medical practitioners and/or others, to identify or support specific needs.

When acute needs are identified in a pupil, we will liaise with external agencies and plan support programmes for that child. We will work with parents to create the plan and review it on a regular basis.

13. Bullying

Bullying is defined as the repetitive harming of one person or group by another person or group. It is deliberately hurtful and repeated, over a period of time. Details of our school's approach to prevention and addressing bullying are set out in our Anti-Bullying Policy.

14. Physical restraint

In some circumstances, fully trained staff may use reasonable force to restrain a pupil to prevent them:

- Hurting themselves or others
- Damaging property

Incidents of physical restraint must:

- Always be used as a last resort by staff who have been trained
- Be applied using the minimum amount of force and for the minimum amount of time possible
- Be applied in a way that maintains the safety and dignity of all concerned
- Never used as a form of punishment
- Be recorded and reported to parents

15. Monitoring Arrangements

The school records concerning incidents of misbehaviour on CPOMS. These are reviewed and monitored by the Head Teacher and Learning Mentor/Key Stage Co-ordinator fortnightly.

The Head Teacher keeps a record of any child who is suspended/excluded for a fixed-term, or who is permanently excluded, and reports these records to the Governors.

This behaviour policy will be reviewed by the Head Teacher and Governing body every year. At each review, the policy will be approved by the Head Teacher.

AIM Instructions & Recommendations

Why use?

When addressing unwanted behaviour, it is important that we 'move away' from sanction/punishment-based strategies. Children learn best when we address unwanted behaviours as an opportunity to teach the child and give the child strategies to manage their emotions. This strategy aids in the understanding that children's behaviour is a form of communication.

When to use?

When there has been an incident in the classroom or during unstructured time. Depending on the incident will depend on the option you choose. This strategy should not be used for every unwanted behaviour. This strategy must be used alongside whole school systems for managing and rewarding behaviour. This strategy would be useful for pupils identified with Social, Emotional and mental health difficulties and neurodevelopmental disorders.

Option 1 – Using AIM Verbally – Adult to use the phrases Action, Impact and how the child can make it right when discussing unwanted behaviour that challenges. Child responds verbally to the questions.

Option 2 – Using AIM: Child Lead – Child given AIM sheet to complete themselves and share it with an adult.

Option 3 – Using AIM: Adult Lead – Child and adult complete the AIM sheet together.

Option 4 – Using AIM: Group Situation – Adult to complete sheet with a group of children.

Other Considerations

Consider having a whole school focus on Emotion Coaching and Restorative Justice which this process supports.

SOCSS Instructions & RecommendationsWhy use?

In addition to the AIM strategy above, this strategy is a more in-depth look at behaviour as a form of communication. This strategy is based on Autism Outreach (Leicestershire) resources and recommendations.

When to use?

For behaviours that challenge and the child struggles to understand or generalise recommended strategies – a next step to the AIM strategy.

To be used with the pupil and facilitated by a supporting adult.

Other Considerations

If completed, these can be revisited and can be linked to 'Comic Strip Conversations' and 'Social Stories'

APPENDIX 7

Dealing with Harmful sexual behaviour

Our school's response will be:

Proportionate
Considered

Supportive
Decided on a case-by-case basis

While we won't tolerate the behaviour, you won't demonise anyone
While we won't tolerate the behaviour, you won't demonise anyone – you'll support and listen to all of the pupils involved.
The alleged perpetrator(s) will be offered support (see more on this below), so that they can change their behaviour.

List all possible sanctions

Different sanctions will be appropriate for different 'levels' of sexual harassment and sexist comments. We won't be able to map out perfectly which sanctions will be used for which behaviours, as context will impact how you handle each incident.

Instead, list all the sanctions you'll consider using, and make it clear which consequences will happen:

Appropriate sanctions to list might be:

A verbal warning
Keeping the pupil behind after class to apologise to their peer
A letter or phone call to parents
Detention
A period of internal exclusion (length dependent on incident)
Suspension (fixed-term exclusion) - length dependent on incident - or permanent exclusion

How to decide what sanction is appropriate

The response to each incident should be proportionate. For example, you might want to address a 'lower-level' incident such as a sexist comment through education, your curriculum and the way your school promotes respect.

You should also balance the importance of safeguarding other pupils with the need to support, educate and protect the alleged perpetrator(s).

Consider:

The age and developmental stage of the alleged perpetrator(s)
The nature and frequency of the alleged incident(s)
How to balance the sanction alongside education and safeguarding support (if necessary, these should take place at the same time)
This is set out in paragraph 464 of KCSIE (2021).

Use exclusion from school only in the most severe cases, for example if the police recommend you exclude a pupil after an incident of sexual assault. If this happens and you still wish to keep the pupil in school, you'll need mitigations in place to protect other pupils, such as keeping that child in isolation.

Take the wishes of the victim(s) into account

You should keep victims at a reasonable distance from the alleged perpetrator(s) while on the school premises (including during any before or after school-based activities). This is set out on page 106 of KCSIE.

Some victims might prefer that the alleged perpetrator(s) move class, whereas others may prefer that they stay in their class but just not sitting next to them. For example, if a victim is afraid of how the friends of the alleged perpetrator(s) might react if their friend was removed from class, the victim might prefer to not be put in this situation.

Explain in your behaviour policy that you'll listen to the victim(s) and that their wishes will inform your response, but that you'll make the final decision.

Use your behaviour policy to underpin a culture of respect

Due to a wider societal culture of victim blaming, pupils may be afraid of how reporting incidents of abuse and harassment reflects on them. Creating a culture and ethos of respect, tolerance, acceptance and diversity makes it easier for pupils to call out incidents and harder for anyone to get away with sexist or inappropriate sexual behaviour.

This isn't a quick-fix, but if you're committed to making your school more inclusive in the long term, use our audit tool to help you take your first steps.

Focus on the importance of reporting the behaviour

'Lower-level' incidents are far more frequent than severe incidents, and can underpin the problematic 'normalised' culture Ofsted refers to in its review
'Lower-level' incidents are far more frequent than severe incidents, and can underpin the problematic 'normalised' culture Ofsted refers to in its review. Start to dismantle this by encouraging pupils to call out and report anything that makes them uncomfortable, no matter how 'small' they think it is.

Let pupils know that you will:

Take their safety and wellbeing seriously

Listen to them

Act on their concerns

Not tolerate or accept abuse

Highlight the supportive and protective aspect of a 'zero-tolerance' approach. Make it clear that reporting incidents benefits everyone, including:

The victim(s): by stopping the problem and getting the help and support they need

Other people: by preventing it happening to someone else

The alleged perpetrator(s): catching problematic behaviour early can help them avoid criminal offences later in life

Promote appropriate sexual behaviours

As well as focusing on what's inappropriate, help pupils to understand what good and healthy sexual behaviour means.

Your RSE/RHE curriculum will cover important areas such as:

Consent

What respectful behaviour looks like

Body confidence and self-esteem

Healthy relationships

The DfE's statutory RSE guidance outlines how your curriculum should now cover these issues through your relationships and sex education (RSE) or relationships and health education (RHE) provision.

Show you're prepared to act, no matter how small the incident

Calling out behaviour as it happens will help all pupils understand what is and isn't OK

Calling out behaviour as it happens will help all pupils understand what is and isn't OK. Share our self-assessment tool with staff to help boost their confidence in calling out this behaviour.

If the incident is very 'low level' – for example, a pupil making a comment that staff have reason to believe they don't fully understand – it may be appropriate to explain why it wasn't OK and ask the pupil to apologise to the victim on the spot.

Use it as an opportunity to encourage a class discussion about appropriate and inappropriate language – use our curriculum audit to help you keep lessons gender-inclusive.

If they apologise, make sure staff keep an eye out for any recurrence from that particular pupil.

If they refuse, escalate the incident to a more serious sanction.

Get parents involved immediately

Don't just file an incident away, no matter how 'low-level' – let parents know what their child has said or done, and that you'd like them to talk about it as a family. This will help you:

Get the parents on board in condemning the behaviour

Start an important conversation between the pupil and their parents about acceptable and unacceptable sexual behaviour

Work towards a solution together

This can just be a quick phone call, but it's important that it happens immediately and every time staff have concerns about their child's behaviour.

Offer support to the alleged perpetrator(s)

Gently but firmly condemn the behaviour, not the pupil

Sometimes when pupils demonstrate harmful sexual behaviour (HSB) towards one another, it's because they're communicating their own experience of abuse.

Offer them a safe space to explain what may have happened to them, and to discuss how their actions weren't appropriate. Gently but firmly condemn the behaviour, not the pupil – otherwise they won't feel safe to open up about their own experiences.

Have a plan in place to help them modify their behaviour – this may involve counselling or clinical care.

KCSIE 2021 contains more information about how to support the alleged perpetrator(s) – see paragraph 464.

Consider outreach programmes for groups of offenders

In some circumstances, you may feel it's appropriate for a group of pupils who have committed similar offences to engage in an outreach programme where they can hear first-hand about the impact of behaviour such as theirs.

The Lucy Faithfull Foundation's Inform Young People programme offers training and support for young people in trouble with the police or their school for inappropriate online behaviour, including sexting. It can be free of charge in certain situations – contact the organisation to find out more.

For more serious offences, consider arranging for the perpetrator to meet with survivors of sexual abuse who feel comfortable talking about their experience. Get in touch with your nearest rape crisis centre to see if it offers such an outreach programme.

APPENDIX 8

Appendix: Responding to Racist Incidents

St John Fisher CVA Primary School is committed to providing a safe and inclusive environment for all children. Racist behaviour of any kind is unacceptable and will not be tolerated. This appendix outlines the steps the school will take when a racist incident is recorded.

Our Priorities:

Supporting the Victim: Our first priority is the well-being of the child who has experienced racism. We will offer immediate support, listen to their concerns, and take steps to ensure they feel safe. This may include individual support from a designated member of staff, counselling services, or involving parents/carers.

Education: We will address the incident with all parties involved.

For the victim: We will provide resources and age-appropriate discussions to help them understand racism and its impact.
For the perpetrator: We will explain why their behaviour was wrong and unacceptable. We will use age-appropriate methods to educate them about different cultures and promote respect for all individuals.

For the school: After a racist incident, we may have an assembly about diversity and racism to the school.

For parents: Depending on the circumstances, communication may be given to the class where the incident(s) took place highlighting the school's response and support network.

Consequences: There will be appropriate consequences for the perpetrator, depending on the seriousness of the incident. These may include restorative justice approaches, detentions, internal suspensions or, in exceptional cases, exclusion. This will be at the discretion of the headteacher after consultation with the SLT.

Communication: We will keep parents/carers of both the victim and perpetrator informed throughout the process. We will be clear and sensitive in our communication, and aim to work collaboratively to address the issue.

For parents of the victim: Ensuring that they are aware that there is an open-door policy to the SLT for follow-ups and updates in the aftermath of the incident.

Reporting Racist Incidents:

Any member of the school community (staff, pupil, or parent/carer) who witnesses or experiences a racist incident should report it immediately to a member of staff.

All reported incidents will be taken seriously and investigated thoroughly and promptly.

The school will keep a confidential record of all racist incidents. This will be recorded on CPOMS. This information will be used to monitor trends and improve our strategies for preventing and responding to racism. These incidents will be noted at Governors' meetings.

Working Together:

We believe that by working together, we can create a school community where everyone feels valued and respected. If you have any questions or concerns about racism in our school, please do not hesitate to contact the Headteacher.

Awarding House/Dojo Points for Positive Behaviours

At St John Fisher CVA, we use the Class Dojo (EYFS & KS1) and Arbor system (KS2) to support our school community. Staff are encouraged to award positive behaviours. They are awarded for:

- Excellent ambassador
- Excellent effort
- Excellent SHINE behaviour
- Excellent SHAPE answer
- Excellent work

EYFS & Key Stage 1

Children will accrue points individually and these can be logged on Class Dojo by the Class teacher, TAs, Assistant Headteacher and Headteacher. Children will complete an individual points tracker on a weekly basis, so they are aware of their achievements. These points will then be added to a school-wide collection of House Points and the winning house will be announced in assembly each week by the house/vice captains.

Key Stage 2

Children will accrue points individually and these can be logged on Arbor by the Class teacher, TAs, Assistant Headteacher and Headteacher. These points will then be added to a school-wide collection of House Points and the winning house will be announced in assembly each week by the house/vice captains.

House rewards

Each term, the house with the greatest number of points will earn a non-school uniform day.
