Our Geography Learning Journey

What can I find out about the different continents around the world?

How is water used around the world?

What is the geography of the United Kingdom?

What does the world look like?

What is Geography?

How can we use geographical skills?

Why are some places hot and some places cold?

What are the main characteristics of the countries in the United Kingdom?

What are the human and physical features of the United Kingdon?

How can I use my map reading skills?

How can I develop accuracy with my

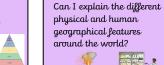

What are the contrasting physical and human features between North and South America?

How do the physical and human features of the United Kingdom contribute to the economic activity?

Can I explain how settlement hierarchy and transport networks develop and why?

Can I identify and explain how to use Ordnance survey maps, contour lines and map grid squares?

How can I most effectively read maps?

What effect is climate change having around the world?

What needs changing in our local area? (Fieldwork)

